The Canterbury Jockey Club would like to congratulate the South Islands Leading Trainers and Jockeys, and wish them continued success for the new season.

We're proud to put our name to this event.

In 1905 we got together to strike a better deal for farmers. Ever since then, we've stood by our customers and stared risk in the face.

Maybe it's because we do things so differently that more farmers insure with us than with anybody else.

In the unlikely event that you haven't heard of us, we're proud to be sponsoring the Grand National Racing Carnival again.

Ask around about us, or call for advice on 0800 366 466.

That's what works out here.

Today's birdcage entertainment is provided by

FLECK

Fleck was formed early in the new millennium by Andy Page (Lead Vocals/Guitars) and Andy Henry (Guitars/Keyboards/Vocals/Trumpet), having previously worked together in Unlimited Speed Zone, a five-piece cover band. It was their goal to continue this big band tradition of providing as "live" an act as possible, which has set them apart from the common duo format of one "singer"/one "button pusher".

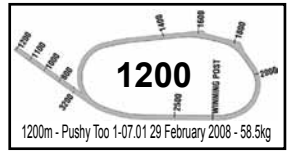

Fleck had the fantastic opportunity to be the opening act for "The Doobie Bros" at the Christchurch Town Hall in January 2006. They played to a packed house & were most appreciated by the Christchurch audience as well as the Doobie Bros, a wonderful experience to showcase their international grade talents.

Carriage Paddock Car Parks

For "Cup Day" this year reserved car spaces will be available not just within the Show Gate Reserved Park and the Grand National Lawn but extended into the Carriage Paddock. Over 200 spaces thru to the 600 metre "village" will be pre-sold at $100 each. This move reflects both the growing popularity of the event but also the need to manage this area as part of our licensed premises. The ability to bring onto the course food and some alcoholic beverages within the enclosed boot of a vehicle will remain a feature of this offer as it is with the other pre sold car parks. This is a R18 restricted area.

2012 Cheltenham Festival Tour

Hosted by: Andre Klein
CEO Gallop South & NZ National Jump Racing Manager

Leave NZ: Friday, March 9
Depart UK: Sunday, March 18

Proposed Itinerary

Friday March 9
Depart NZ

Saturday, March 10
Arrive Birmingham Airport, pick up cars and transfer to The Bull Hotel at Fairford in the Cotswolds.

Sunday, March 11
Relax. Take an optional short drive through the Cotswold to visiting the iconic tourist towns of: Burford, Moreton in Marsh, Stratford Upon Avon and Chipping Camden. Visit the "jumps only" Stratford Racecourse. Find comfortable pub location to view France v England in their Six Nations encounter.

Monday, March 12
Travel to Cheltenham Racecourse for a walk of the track. Enjoy a behind the scenes look at the venue and all its facilities as it is readied for the week of festivities ahead. All doors are opened for this tour! Followed with a visit to the spa town of Cheltenham for lunch.

Tuesday, March 13
Cheltenham Races - Champion Hurdle Day

Wednesday, March 14
Cheltenham Races - Queen Mother Champion Chase Day

Thursday, March 15
Cheltenham Races - World Hurdle Day

Friday, March 16
Cheltenham Races - Gold Cup Day

Saturday, March 17
In the morning we plan to visit the historic town of Cirencester and then its onwards to fantastic market town of Tetbury with its great bookshops (plenty of racing books!). We may visit a point to point meeting - depending on appropriate fixtures.

Sunday, March 18
A real highlight - visit the racing centre of Lambourn with a tour of the "Downs" and local stables. Followed by Sunday lunch at England's most famous racing pub - The Pheasant.

Tour Includes: Flights from NZ to UK return
(departing: Christchurch or Auckland - does not include internal flights)
Transport & Transfers in UK

8 nights double room share accommodation including breakfast.
A supplement will be required for single room occupancy.

Please note it does not include tickets to the race meetings Cheltenham.
Admission ticket prices are being negotiated at this time with Cheltenham Racecourse. We will be guaranteed highly discounted rates.

Travelers are required to organise their own insurance for the duration of the trip.

Colombus & Ware

Now based in Merivale Mall, Christchurch

Each 2010-2011 season meeting at Riccarton Park local (Canterbury/Westland / Marlborough) trainers received an entry for each winner to receive the Columbus and Ware prize of a suit, shirt, tie and belt combination of their choice valued at $1000.

The draw of all eligible entries was undertaken on the first day, August 6th, with SHANE KENNEDY the lucky winner.

39 trainers were eligible with at least one winner at Riccarton Park during the 2010-2011 season with a combined total of 148 entries

Canterbury Racing and the local Trainers Association thank Columbus and Ware for this support which continues in the new season with the Grand National Carnival being the first opportunity. Paul Harris and Sophie Hargreaves secured entries on Saturday.

St Johns Room Renovated

The St Johns room at Riccarton Park (situated at the southern end of the Apprentice Room) has been recently renovated to provide a service that we can be proud of. This area was in need of some upgrading so it with gratitude that the Club thanks the Racing Safety Development Fund and Air Rescue Services Limited for their financial contributions. Our own builder, Tom Mooney did a great job in overseeing the project through to completion.

Of special mention – the room now has an infant change area available for use on racedays.

Grand National Carnival Week Luncheon

The Canterbury Club (in association with Canterbury Racing) invites you to a luncheon to be held in the Balmerino Room, Riccarton Park, on Thursday 11 August 2011 commencing at 12.30pm.

Guest Speaker: Michael Pitman – long one of the countries premier thoroughbred trainers, Michael has enjoyed a stellar season in 2010-2011 reaching 100 wins, the first time such a mark has been achieved by a South Island based trainer. He has won the trainers premiership and just fell short of the record 108 wins held by Mark Walker. His is a great story of success against the odds.

Luncheon Cost: $63 per person (includes wine/juice)

Tickets: to this luncheon are limited and available from David Cartwright on 3650353 or david@canterburyclub.co.nz or the Canterbury Jockey Club on 3360000 alison@riccartonpark.co.nz

SOUTH ISLAND SALE OF TWO-YEAR-OLDS & MIXED BLOODSTOCK

[12 AUGUST 2011 FROM 11AM]

CANTERBURY AGRICULTURAL PARK, CHRISTCHURCH

WHERE WINNING BEGINS

From the region of Phar Lap, this southern showcase presents potential and value with over 130 unraced two-year-olds plus mixed bloodstock on offer.

For an entry fee of only $250 plus GST, one of these two-year-old graduates is set to win $50,000 in the inaugural SOUTHERN BONUS RACE. Qualifying graduates will have preference in field selection for this open three-year-old event, with the $50,000 bonus to be won by the first eligible graduate across the line.

Grand National Hurdles

The first Grand National Hurdles was run in July 1890. Originally over 2 miles, it was increased to 2¼ miles in 1915 and 2½ miles a year later. A further 160 yards were added in 1940, and it stayed at that distance until metrication to 4200 metres in 1973. The only time a winner has been disqualified was in 1912, when The Native was put out for jostling the third horse Paisano, Waterworks being promoted to first.

| | 12 st 6 lb (78 kg) | Liberator | 1894 |
| | 12 st 1 lb (76½ kg) | Paisano | 1910 |

Since metrication in 1974, the highest weight carried has been 68 kg by Just Not Cricket in 2008 (63 kg minimum).

No horse has won three times. Dual winners are:

|----------------|--|
| Liberator | (1893, 1894) |
| Gladful | (1921, 1922) |
| Jolly Beggar | (1935, 1936) |
| Padishah | (1938, 1939 - also won the Steeplechase in 1939) |
| Eiffel Tower | (1966, 1967) |
| Frederik | (1971, 1974) |
| Bart's Best | (1995, 1996) |
| Just A Swagger | (2004, 2005) |

The oldest winners were the 12-year-olds Sir Solo in 1919 and Gladful in 1922. The youngest were the five-year-olds Ixion in 1890 (although he turned six shortly after), Kulinine in 1892, Tresham in 1902, Morning in 1913 and Sheikle in 1977. Only two mares have won - Flying Spy in 1944 and Raggamuffin Rose 50 years later.

Bert Ellis holds the jockeys' record with five wins - Penury Rose (1925), Wharnclyffe (1927), Padishah (1938 and 1939), and The Dozer (1941).

The following jockeys have been successful three times:

W C Clarke - Kulinine (1892), Social Pest (1898), Record Reign (1900)
Bill Young - Shrapnel (1907), Paisano (1910), Continuance (1911)
Brian (Baggy) Hillis - Armed (1959), Smoke Ring (1964), Lordtuckey (1968)
Stephen Jenkins - Sebastiano (1982), Jean Rapiere (1983), Gun For Fun (1985)
Alex (Snooky) Cowan - Bart's Best (1995, 1996), Eric The Bee (1998).

The women jockeys to win are Leanne Elliot on Charlie Boy in 1992, Tina Egan on Raggamuffin Rose two years later, Megan Prendergast on Arch Rival in 1999 and Rochelle Lockett on Lucky Tip in 2002 and Cool Water in 2003 and Michell Hopkins on Just A Swagger in 2004.

The 16 horses that have won the Sydenham - Grand National Hurdles double in the same year are:

| | | | |
|--------------------|--------|------------------|--------|
| Haydn | 1901 * | Stormont | 1908 * |
| Sir Solo | 1919 * | Carinthia | 1930 * |
| Hounslow | 1933 * | Gay Fellow | 1950 * |
| Brue | 1956 * | Golden Defaulter | 1960 * |
| Cretan | 1963 * | Eiffel Tower | 1966 * |
| Rapid Flight | 1978 | Sebastiano | 1982 |
| Mister Divinsky | 1990 | Sir Barton | 1991 |
| Woodbine Blue Chip | 1993 | Just A Swagger | 2004 |

* in these years the Grand National was run before the Sydenham.

Two horses have won the treble of the Great Northern, Wellington and Grand National Hurdles in the same year - Town Survey (aged 6 and 7) in 1943 and Smoke Ring (aged 5 and 6) in 1964. They carried 10 stone 12 lb (69 kg) and 11 stone (70 kg) respectively in their third wins. Gladful won all three races, but in different years - the Great Northern in 1917, the Wellington in 1918 and the Grand National in 1921 and 1922. Bramble Song won at Ellerslie and Riccarton in 1946, but was denied the treble with no Wellington meeting being held that year. Twenty-one other horses have won two of the three.

Stallion Services – An Opportunity

Due to the generous support of several of our leading studs, Canterbury Racing has several stallion services to offer including those listed here. We commend these to you and invite both your consideration and submission of a tender if you believe one or more of the stallions would suit your mare(s).

This tender helps support feature race stakes here at Riccarton Park and in conjunction with Linwood Park we will also offer the opportunity to support the Christchurch Earthquake appeal.

Note that our tender closes at 5pm on Friday August 19th.
(all fees referred are GST exclusive)

RICCARTON PARK
THE CHRISTCHURCH FUNCTION CENTRE

New Zealand Bloodstock

Canterbury/Marlborough/Westland & Otago Branch of the NZ Thoroughbred Breeders' Assoc.

Invite you to the annual

WELCOME FUNCTION & AUCTION

Chateau on the Park

(Upstairs in the Tower Room) Kilmarnock Street, Christchurch
Thursday 11th August, From - 6.30pm

Unfortunately as we are all aware many breeders have to race their fillies and mares due to there being a limited selling market for them, so this years fun auction will be raising funds for a small incentive scheme so we can give a little bit back to these breeders/owners. So get behind the branch and come and support us on the night.

Of the more than 20 items up for auction the highlights include a framed print and horse shoe worn by Champion Sire Zabeel, along with a signed copy of 'Give A Man A Horse' the story of Sir Patrick Hogan, a Zabeel cap, and DVD 'The Promise' Sir Tristram's Story, all generously donated by Cambridge Stud; a mounted set of front plates worn by Australian Champion Sire Redoute's Choice (accompanied by a Certificate of Authentication) donated by Arrowfield Stud; one tonne of Fibre Fresh (44 bags to be sold in two lots); three-course dinner for two at Morgan's Café and Vineyard (including a bottle of Morgan's wine); a signed copy of Attitude and Heart – The Horse in New Zealand by Carolyn Mincham; a one-year subscription to Australian Breeding and Racing; one-year subscription to The Informant; and a day at the races for four including buffet lunch donated by the Canterbury Jockey Club. Other items donated are from Majestic Horse Transport, Hanley Supplements, Zilco, Four Flax, Magnum Industries, Prydes Easifeed, June Douglas, NZB Insurance, Jouvence Beauty, Sandihurst Winery and Canterbury Saddlery, with more coming in daily.

If you unable to attend we are happy to accept bids by email which will be given to the auctioneer on the night.

Please email our Treasurer Wendy Wakefield on

Wendy.Wakefield@xtra.co.nz

Closing date for email bids is 10pm on Wednesday 10th August.

For details please see our website www.nztba.co.nz
